

DR. EMMETT

(Near the end of the play, Dr. Emmett explains to Ethel Savage why she doesn't belong in the sanitarium, even though she wants to stay.)

Jeffrey sees only what he wants to see—an excuse for not facing the future. Does Florence see that her child was taken from her? Does Fairy see what the mirror should tell her? No. They've found refuge in an egg-shell world where you don't belong. For you see yourself clearly, I'm sure. You belong in the world you can best serve. The impulse to live your life with courage was right. Go ahead with your Memorial. And don't be betrayed by the illusion of contentment. The door is open for you. Make your peace with loneliness.
